They also spent time with the children and teachers at a little school located in Kibera, Nairobi, Kenya described as the largest urban slum in Africa, where, thanks to donors, SFA was able to fund a sanitation project in 2026.

The Canadian Bishops address MAiD

The Permanent Council of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) is urging Parliament to reconsider two important provisions of Bill C-41, the Medical Assistance in Dying Safeguards Act. In a brief submitted to parliamentarians, the CCCB calls

1) for the bill to maintain the current exclusion of mental illness as the sole underlying medical condition; and,
2) for removing the provisions allowing advance requests for euthanasia.

Why is this important?

Advance requests would permit euthanasia after a person has lost the capacity to make or communicate decisions, potentially years after the request was signed. The CCCB raises serious questions about how such requests would be interpreted, how a person's present wishes or responses would be understood, and whether the fears or circumstances that prompted the original request would still reflect that person's experience. It also cautions that inadequate care, isolation and external pressures may influence decisions made when people are particularly vulnerable. The bishops emphasize that decisions with irreversible consequences deserve careful parliamentary examination, especially when the individual concerned can no longer provide informed consent.

How can you help?

With a vote at second reading expected shortly, the CCCB encourages Catholics and all Canadians who share these concerns to contact their Members of Parliament without delay. A letter-writing campaign has been launched to ensure that parliamentarians hear from their constituents before the vote.

Get involved, using the CCCB samples as a guide:

- Send an email to your Member of Parliament
  https://actionbutton.nationbuilder.com/share/SPK-Q0FBQEE=
- Writie a personal letter to your MP
  www.cccb.ca/faith-moral-issues/suffering-and-end-of-life/euthanasia-and-assisted-suicide/sample-letter-bill-c-41/

As Catholics, we are called to uphold the dignity of every human life, particularly those who are ill, elderly or living with disabilities. Let us also remember our responsibility to offer compassionate care, support and accompaniment to those who are suffering.

Welcome Brian Jenkins – Quebec Life Coalition

This Sunday, we are pleased to welcome Brian Jenkins of Quebec Life Coalition (QLC), who will share a few words with us at the conclusion of 10am Mass.

Brian has dedicated many years to advocating for the dignity and protection of human life, from conception to natural death. He has led more than 30 40-Days-for-Life campaigns in Montreal and elsewhere in Quebec, participating in peaceful prayer vigils and offering support and a listening ear to women facing difficult pregnancies.

Quebec Life Coalition works to promote respect for human life, strengthen families, support women in crisis pregnancies, and offer compassionate assistance to those affected by abortion. Its advocacy also extends to concerns surrounding euthanasia and the protection of the elderly and vulnerable.

Please take a moment to chat with Brian. He will be joining us in the Hall for Coffee Sunday, where you will have an opportunity to learn more about QLC's mission, its initiatives, and ways to get involved.
