For your child to participate, register by Monday, Dec. 8, at ccfaithfirst@gmail.com.

Poinsettias and Flower Fund Donations

While you are out shopping, consider picking up a potted poinsettia to add to the altar flowers and to help beautify the parish for the Christmas season. Drop them off in the Parish Hall anytime before Sunday, December 21.

Or, if you prefer, make a tax-deductible contribution to the Flower Fund, by dropping off a clearly marked envelope in the offertory basket, or online by e-transfer at waf4corpuschristi@yahoo.com.

Christmas Decorations Request

As we prepare to decorate the Parish Hall for the Christmas season, we're reaching out for your help. If you have gently used Christmas decorations, such as wreaths, garlands, lights, ornaments, or even an extra Christmas tree you no longer need, we would be grateful for your donation.

Your contributions help make our parish celebrations festive, welcoming, and joyful for everyone. Items can be brought to the Parish Office during the week or brought to the Hall after Masses. Thank you for helping us make the season bright!

DOUBLE-UP SUNDAY IS NEXT WEEKEND – December 14

Second Sunday Stewardship Appeal

Contribution

As good stewards of our parish community, we are invited to prayerfully consider supporting the ongoing needs of Corpus Christi. This year, our parish is facing a $35,000 deficit, and every bit of increased generosity makes a real difference.

On the Second Sunday of each month, parishioners are asked to consider bumping up their regular offering – even a small increase helps strengthen our ministries, maintain our parish home, and support the mission we share. Thank you for your continued faithfulness and commitment to our parish family.

Pastoral Home Care Team – Commissioning this Sunday

This Sunday, December 7 at the 10am Mass, our parish will formally present and bless the members of our Corpus Christi Pastoral Home Care Team:

Josie Areola,	Johanne Babb,	Monique Dumas,
Deborah Foley,	Marites Gannaban,	Terry Girouard,
Johanne Humes,	Noelle Khoury,	Angela McQuillan,
Philomena Netto,	Anne Parsons,	Ashtrid Potts
Rebecca Staughton,	Dan Wheeler

These parishioners generously answered the call to be trained for ministry to the sick, elderly and homebound. Each will offer companionship, prayer, attentive listening and Holy Communion to those who request it, helping these brothers and sisters remain connected to the life of the Church.

Please keep our Home Care Team in your prayers as they begin this work of mercy. May their service reveal God's tender care, and may all who receive their visits know Christ's peace and consolation. Let us give thanks for their "yes" and continue building a parish where no one journeys alone.

If you would like to participate in this ministry, have been trained in the past or hope to be trained in the future, or know someone who would benefit from a pastoral visit, please contact Anne Parsons or Dan Wheeler at pastoralhomecare@gmail.com.

2025 Christmas Baskets

Nonperishable food can be dropped-off in the bins by the church entrances. Christmas items, and gift cards for grocery chains and pharmacies, are also especially welcome.

Once again, we join our efforts with the St. Willibrord Christmas Basket Project (with food collected before next Saturday, December 13), helping disadvantaged families in the Montreal area.

ELECTION OF WARDENS

The Council of Wardens has called for a meeting of Parishioners in the Church following 10 am Mass, Sunday, January 11, 2026, to elect one (1) warden for the statutory 3-year term of 2026-2029.

What is a Warden?

The role of the Council of Wardens is defined by the Civil Code of Quebec.

According to the Code, the Wardens are the administrators of the finances, material goods and property intended for the religious benefit of Parishioners.

A Warden is elected by the Parishioners at a meeting called for that purpose and should live within the geographical boundaries of the Parish (Senneville, Ste.-Anne-de-Bellevue and Baie d'Urfé). The lengths of terms for the open positions are shown above. Wardens may be elected to serve a second term.

Some of the attributes required of a Warden are: a sense of the Mission of Christ, some administrative skills, and practical common sense.

To be considered a candidate for election, you must be nominated by two Parishioners at the meeting called for that purpose.

If you are interested in becoming a Warden, please indicate your interest to Father Stephen, Wally Rowcliffe, or one of the Wardens. Their names and phone numbers are shown on the Bulletin.

To learn more about the Fabriques Act and the role of the churchwarden, go to www.legisquebec.gouv.qc.ca/en/document/cs/F-1

JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE – 2025

The Nicene Creed Explained – Part 24

(By Evelyn Martins, Parish Catechetical Leader, Corpus Christi Parish)

Every week, together as pilgrims of hope, we explore parts of the Nicene Creed.

We continue our reflections on the statement:

I look forward to the life of the world to come

In our previous article, we commented on the dogma of the Particular Judgement. In this article, we will reflect on one of the outcomes of the Particular Judgement – Heaven.

“Those who die in God's grace and friendship and are perfectly purified [enter Heaven immediately and] live for ever with Christ” (CCC 1023).

“Heaven is the ultimate end and fulfillment of the deepest human longings, the state of supreme, definitive happiness” (CCC 1024). As St. Augustine said in his Confessions: “You have made us for yourself, Lord, and our heart is restless until it rests in you”. Our life on earth is transient, we are but tourists here for only a short time, “but our citizenship is in heaven” (Philippians 3:20).

When the form of this world has passed away, those who have welcomed God into their lives and have sincerely opened themselves to his love, at least at the moment of death, will enjoy that fullness of communion with God which is the goal of human life (John Paul II, General Audience of 21 July, 1999, 1).

“This perfect life with the Most Holy Trinity — this communion of life and love with the Trinity, with the Virgin Mary, the angels and all the blessed — is called ‘heaven’” (CCC 1024).

“To live in heaven is to be with Christ” (CCC 1025). This is our innermost desire, as we pray in Psalm 42:

As a deer longs for flowing streams,
so my soul longs for you, O God.
My soul thirsts for God,
for the living God.
When shall I come and behold
the face of God? (Psalm 42:1-2)

In Heaven, “we shall see [God] as he is” (1 John 3:2). Saint Paul tells us that the vivid heavenly encounter with God after death will stand in contrast to the pale knowledge of God experienced on Earth: “For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face” (1 Corinthians 13:12).

These souls [in Heaven]... see the divine essence with an intuitive vision and even face to face, without the mediation of any creature... rather the divine essence immediately manifests itself to them, plainly, clearly and openly, and in this vision they enjoy the divine essence (Benedict XII, Benedictus Deus).

With our limited vocabulary and finite intellect, it is not possible to accurately describe or imagine what Heaven is like. Every analogy or depiction will fall short of the reality that awaits us if we die in a state of grace.

This mystery of blessed communion with God and all who are in Christ is beyond all understanding and description. Scripture speaks of it in images: life, light, peace, wedding feast, wine of the kingdom, the Father's house, the heavenly Jerusalem, paradise (CCC 1027).

These images are only meant to give us a sense of the immense beauty, grandeur, peace, love, joy and communion that Heaven encompasses. As Saint Paul tells us, "no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him" (1 Corinthians 2:9). On this side of eternity, we cannot fully comprehend what eternal life in Heaven will be like.

We know that the "heaven" or "happiness" in which we will find ourselves is neither an abstraction nor a physical place in the clouds, but a living, personal relationship with the Holy Trinity. It is our meeting with the Father which takes place in the risen Christ through the communion of the Holy Spirit (John Paul II, General Audience of 21 July, 1999, 4).

We hold fast to Jesus' comforting words that he prepares a place for us in his Father's house:

In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. (John 14:2-3)

"God put us in the world to know, to love, and to serve him, and so to come to paradise" (CCC 1721). May we live our lives in a manner worthy to merit eternal life in Heaven, as Jesus promises us: "Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Revelation 2:10).

There we shall rest and see, we shall see and love, we shall love and praise. Behold what will be at the end without end. For what other end do we have, if not to reach the kingdom which has no end? (CCC 1720, quoting Saint Augustine)

In our next article, we will reflect on the purification of souls in Purgatory.
