My Life as a Parishioner of Corpus Christi – A Testimony

My name is Rose Marie Colameo. I joined Corpus Christi Parish several years ago when my mom and dad were both parishioners here. One Sunday, I was asked to join the choir, which is a combination of singing, which I love, as well as a way of praying to our Lord. Through my involvement in the celebration of Father Otvos' arrival, hosting Coffee Sundays, and organizing the 2025 Fall Fest, I have come to know many parishioners. I am truly blessed to have a "church family"; a community of people that I know are there for me, and, with the help of our Lord, I will continue to do the best to ensure that I am there for the parish. Blessings to all.

Stand up for Life

For a society that defends faith, family and life, from conception to natural death.

The Legault government recently introduced a draft Constitution for Quebec. Alongside noble ideals, this text also enshrines abortion and euthanasia as constitutional principles, while erasing Quebec's Christian heritage. Worse still, it could become a model for other provinces – dragging all of Canada into further moral decline. Sign the petition at: <https://citizengo.org/en-ca/pat/16749>

JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE – 2025

We continue to examine the Papal Bull “Spes Non Confundit”

“Hope does not disappoint

because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit” –Romans 5:5

A Papal (or Pontifical) “Bull of Indiction” is an official document, usually written in Latin, published by the Pope to proclaim a Jubilee Year. The Papal Bull for this Jubilee Year of Hope, translated into English, can be found here:

www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/bulls/documents/20240509_spes-non-confundit_bolla-giubileo2025.html

Each week, we have selected a few sentences from each paragraph in the Bull as inspirational reflections to help us live this Jubilee Year of Hope.

Some excerpts from Paragraph 25:

- “May we who have taken refuge in him be strongly encouraged to seize the hope set before us. We have this hope, a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters the inner shrine behind the curtain, where Jesus, a forerunner on our behalf, has entered” (Hebrews 6:18-20).
- The image of the anchor is eloquent; it helps us to recognize the stability and security that is ours amid the troubled waters of this life, provided we entrust ourselves to the Lord Jesus.
- May the witness of believers be for our world a leaven of authentic hope...
- Through our witness, may hope spread to all those who anxiously seek it. May the way we live our lives say to them in so many words: “Hope in the Lord! Hold firm, take heart and hope in the Lord!” (Psalm 27:14).

This concludes our series of excerpts from the Papal Bull “Spes Non Confundit”. We hope you have found this series fruitful in your spiritual life. We invite you to check our website for other resources on the Jubilee Year, which ends on January 6, 2026.

Our Lady of the Holy Rosary Novena Prayer

O Virgin Mary, grant that the recitation of thy Rosary may be for me each day, in the midst of my manifold duties, a bond of unity in my actions, a tribute of filial piety, a sweet refreshment, an encouragement to walk joyfully along the path of duty. Grant, above all, O Virgin Mary, that the study of thy fifteen mysteries may form in my soul, little by little, a luminous atmosphere, pure, strengthening my will, my heart, my memory, my imagination, my whole being. So shall I acquire the habit of praying while I work, without the aid of formal prayers, by interior acts of admiration and of supplication, or by aspirations of love. I ask this of thee, O Queen of the Holy Rosary, through Saint Dominic, thy son of predilection, the renowned preacher of thy mysteries, and the faithful imitator of thy virtues. (source: EWTN)

The Nicene Creed Explained – Part 19

(By Evelyn Martins, Parish Catechetical Leader, Corpus Christi Parish)

Every week, together as pilgrims of hope, we explore parts of the Nicene Creed.

We continue our reflections on the fourth section of the Nicene Creed. Following the four marks of the Church, discussed in our previous articles, the next statement in the Nicene Creed is I profess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins

Baptism, one of the seven Sacraments of the Church, is the first Sacrament all Christians receive. Through Baptism, we are cleansed of original sin, the Holy Spirit comes to dwell in us, and we become adopted sons and daughters of God.

Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit (vitae spiritualis ianua) and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as sons of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the Church and made sharers in her mission (CCC 1213).

Our Lord tied the forgiveness of sins to faith and Baptism: "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation. He who believes and is baptized will be saved." Baptism is the first and chief sacrament of forgiveness of sins because it unites us with Christ, who died for our sins and rose for our justification, so that we too might walk in newness of life (CCC 977).

One Baptism

Before Jesus ascended into Heaven, he commissioned his Apostles to make disciples through Baptism in the name of the Holy Trinity (which is still used in the Rite of Baptism today):

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you" (Matthew 28:19-20).

Thus, Jesus spoke of only one Baptism, echoed in the subsequent words of Saint Paul to the Ephesians:

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all, who is above all and through all and in all (Ephesians 4:4-6).

"Baptism seals the Christian with the indelible spiritual mark (character) of his belonging to Christ.... Given once for all, Baptism cannot be repeated" (CCC 1272).

Indelible means "permanent", "cannot be erased". The permanent character imprinted on our souls through Baptism implies that this Sacrament is received only once and cannot be repeated. The word character comes from the Greek kharaktēr, which refers to a seal, tooled stamp or engraved mark.

This permanent mark of belonging to Christ through Baptism should bring us joy and hope in that, no matter how grave our sins are, we still belong to Christ: we are "incorporated into Christ.... No sin can erase this mark, even if sin prevents Baptism from bearing the fruits of salvation" (CCC 1272).

Forgiveness of sins

"By Baptism all sins are forgiven, original sin and all personal sins, as well as all punishment for sin" (CCC 1263). However, because we are human and have a fallen nature, "certain temporal consequences of sin remain in the baptized, such as suffering, illness, death... as well as an inclination to sin that Tradition calls concupiscence" (CCC 1264).

If the Church has the power to forgive sins, then Baptism cannot be her only means of using the keys of the Kingdom of heaven received from Jesus Christ. The Church must be able to forgive all penitents their offenses, even if they should sin until the last moment of their lives (CCC 979).

When Jesus appeared to the Apostles after his resurrection, he gave them his own divine power to forgive sins by breathing on them and saying, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained" (John 20:p22-23). Through the Sacrament of Holy Orders, all priests receive this same power to forgive sins in the person of Christ (in persona Christi) when they hear confessions.

"It is through the sacrament of Penance [also called Reconciliation or Confession] that the baptized can be reconciled with God and with the Church" (CCC 980), and so be restored to the baptismal state of grace. Confession is thus not an optional ritual but a continuation of the call to conversion and holiness begun at our Baptism.

"This sacrament of Penance is necessary for salvation for those who have fallen after Baptism, just as Baptism is necessary for salvation for those who have not yet been reborn" (CCC 980, quoting Saint Gregory of Nazianzus).

As we continue our daily struggle to lead holy lives, we must not despair when we fall into sin but instead approach the Sacrament of Confession with true contrition and repentance.

There is no offense, however serious, that the Church cannot forgive. There is no one, however wicked and guilty, who may not confidently hope for forgiveness, provided his repentance is honest. Christ who died for all men desires that in his Church the gates of forgiveness should always be open to anyone who turns away from sin (CCC 982).

Were there no forgiveness of sins in the Church, there would be no hope of life to come or eternal liberation.
Let us thank God who has given his Church such a gift.

Questions to Ponder (from <https://pastoral.center/>)

- ▶ Have you ever thought you were better than someone else? What is the problem with such thoughts?
- ▶ What steps can I take to strengthen my trust in God's justice and care?
- ▶ What do I do for those who feel unheard or oppressed?
