Suitcases for Africa Annual Christmas Market

SFA is holding its Annual Bake sale and African Market in the Parish Hall after all Masses this weekend, Saturday & Sunday, December 4 & 5. Along with beautiful gift items from Kenya and the ever-popular Donation Gift Cards to consider for the people on your shopping lists, there will be Baked Goods, Homemade Soups and Indoor Plants to purchase. The funds raised will help those in need in the struggling communities served – this is one of the most important fund-raisers to help support SFA projects for 2022. Come get a head start on your Christmas supply. Thank you for all your support!

Help the Homeless

When we clothe the homeless, we clothe our Lord Jesus Christ, when we assist the needy, we assist Him. To help us in this corporal work of mercy, new socks can once again be purchased to be given to Benedict Labre House at the table by the church entrance.

Other items on the Benedict Labre House Christmas Wish List:

- Socks and stockings
- New underwear
- Sleeping bags and blankets
- Winter clothing and outerwear
- Personal care products in travel sizes (soaps, toothpaste)

Christmas Basket Food Drive

Corpus Christi parish will once again be preparing food baskets for families in our community.

Are you aware of a local family or single person who would benefit from receiving a food basket this Christmas? If so, please contact Anna Farrow (438-488-3760) or the church office.

We will also be collecting non-perishable food items to donate to the Christmas Basket Project at St. Willibrord's Parish in Verdun. This project assembles over 200 food baskets to distribute to families in Verdun, Point St. Charles and Ville-Émard.

Suggested items for donation: cereal, peanut butter, jam, canned tuna and meat, beans, rice, oatmeal, cookies (Christmas style), coffee (instant), tea, pasta, jarred sauce. Or you may also choose to donate grocery cards; these can be dropped in the offertory basket.

Donated goods and items can be left in the alcove at the back of church.

Pray With Scripture Online – Montreal Directed Retreats

Welcome to all who desire to deepen your relationship with God. Come and join us, and learn how to pray with scripture in the way of Saint Ignatius of Loyola. Each session includes a short teaching on the Ignatian method of prayer, listening to a Scripture reading and entering into the experience. Following a quiet time, there is the opportunity for sharing (optional).

Montreal Directed Retreats (MDR), supported by the English-Speaking Catholic Council (ESCC), offers weekday morning online sessions, free and accessible to all via the cloud platform Zoom.

New Schedule: The weekday prayer sessions continue this month, now meeting via ZOOM three times per week on Tuesdays, Wednesday and Thursdays from 10:30 -11:15 am. To join, to register, or if you have any questions, contact: Montreal.Directed.Retreats@gmail.com.

Second Christmas Bake Sale for Winter Clothing Drive Ignatian Spirituality Centre of Montreal

All proceeds from this fundraising event will be used to purchase winter clothing (e.g., hats, mitts, scarves, socks, etc.) for those experiencing homelessness in the greater Montreal area this winter. The baked goods for this sale will be prepared by Aaron Semple, the Villa Saint-Martin chef, and a dedicated team of volunteers who will assist him. Together we can bring warmth to the hearts of those who will be left outside this winter.

Please place your order at <https://ignatiancentremtl.org/bake-sale-2021/>

*If you do not wish to purchase baked goods but still wish to contribute to this initiative, donations are gratefully appreciated.

A Baking Tradition for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception

The special treat for this feast is Moravian Spritz or gingerbread cookies, loaded with fine, aromatic spices. These are mixed on the vigil of the feast, December 7, then baked on this day because they remind us of the passage in the Book of Sirach that describes Mary smelling like spices:

I gave a sweet smell like cinnamon and aromatical balm; I yielded a sweet odor like the best myrrh; and I perfumed my dwelling as store, and galbanum, and onyx, and aloes, and as the frankincense not cut, and my odor is as the purest balm. (Sirach, formerly Ecclesiasticus 24: 20-21)

This type of cookie fills the air with spicy odors, like the quoted passage speaks of Mary.

Discovering Nicholas Black Elk – Conference December 10, 7:30 - 9:30 pm

19h30 to 20h00 – Adoration and prayer in solidarity with Indigenous Peoples

20h00 – Conference

Come discover the life Nicholas Black Elk, the Lakota holy man made famous by the book Black Elk Speaks. Nicholas Black Elk is a candidate for Catholic sainthood, as a saint for our times. In our current context, Indigenous and Christian spiritualities are often considered to be contradictory; for Black Elk, they not only informed but heightened each other. Presented by Damian Costello, PhD, an international expert on NBK. The conference is free, and all donations accepted. Contact: Roger Twance; Louise Royer, Social action, Sainte Kateri au centre-ville, 514 925-4300, x312,. saintekatericv@gmail.com

ON THE LITURGICAL CALENDAR

The feast days of the Church are not just the commemoration of historical events; they also look to the present and the future, and give us an insight into our own relationship with God.

Dec. 4 – Saint John Damascene, Priest, Doctor of the Church for Christian Art, last of the Greek Fathers of the Church and the first of the Christian Aristotleans, defended the use of icons, writer of poetry and hymns, defended the orthodox faith, commentator, such an excellent speaker that he was known as Chrysorrhoas (“golden-stream”)

Dec. 6 – Saint Nicholas of Myra, Bishop, Generous to the poor, and special protector of the innocent and wronged, many stories grew up around him prior to his becoming associated with Santa Claus.

Dec. 7 – Saint Ambrose of Milan, Bishop of Milan, Honey-tongued Doctor of the Church bestowed because of his speaking and preaching ability, Father of the church, one of the four original Doctors of the Latin Church (Ambrose, Augustine, Jerome, and Pope Gregory I),

Dec. 8 – IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, the solemn dogma that the “most Blessed Virgin Mary was, from the first moment of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege of almighty God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ, Saviour of the human race, preserved immune from all stain of original sin.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church) Principal patron of the Ecclesiastical province of Montréal

Dec. 9 – Saint Juan Diego Cuauhtlatatzin, chosen to receive the Guadalupe apparition of Mary at Tepeyac, Mexico, where Our Lady asked him to tell his Bishop that she desired a shrine to be built on the spot to manifest her love for all mankind and she left a marvelous portrait of herself on his mantle as a sign for the Bishop which survives to this day

Dec. 10 – Our Lady of Loreto, the Shrine of the Holy House at Loreto, by tradition considered the house in which Mary was born and where the Annunciation occurred, and the ancient statue of Our Lady which is found there, the first shrine of international renown dedicated to the Blessed Virgin

Dec. 10 – Saint Melchiades, Pope, Martyr, ruled the Church of God in the last period of the Christian persecution under Maximianus, had the good fortune of witnessing the beginning of an era of peace

Dec. 11 – Saint Damasus I, 37th Pope, commissioned the Latin Vulgate translation of the Bible by Saint Jerome, devoted to finding the tombs of martyrs which had been both blocked up and hidden during previous persecutions, lighting the passages and stairwells of the catacombs, encouraged pilgrimages to the martyrs, beautified existing churches, vigorous defender of orthodoxy condemning the heresies of Macedonius and Apollinaris and the Eastern Arians

First Reading:

Baruch 5: 1-9

God will show your splendour.

Responsorial Psalm:

Psalm 126: 1-6

℟. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Second Reading:

Philippians 1: 3-6, 8-11

In the day of Christ, may you be pure and blameless.

Gospel:

Luke 3: 1-6

All flesh shall see the salvation of God.

Monday, December 6 – National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women

The Church in solidarity against violence against women

On December 6, we are painfully reminded of the assassination of 14 young women at the Ecole Polytechnique of Montreal, in 1989. The Social Action Office invites you to wear a white ribbon symbolizing solidarity with the eradication of Violence against Women.

Last month, the CCCB Commission for Justice and Peace released a Pastoral Letter entitled *For Freedom Christ has Set us Free: Pastoral Letter on Human Trafficking and Sexual Exploitation in Canada, drawing attention to the inherently exploitative and abusive nature of the purchase of sex and insisting that in order to protect the vulnerable, this practice must continue to be criminalized: "Treating sex as 'work' masks the physical, psychological and sexual violence inflicted on the prostituted person." <https://www.cccb.ca/wp-content/uploads/2021/11/CCCB-Human-Trafficking-Pastoral-Letter-2021.pdf>

In Quebec, CATHII (Comité d'action contre la traite humaine interne et internationale) has been combating human trafficking for sexual exploitation or forced labour since 2007. They have created a petition (in French only) concerning human trafficking in Quebec is currently available for signing at http://www.cathii.org/sites/www.cathii.org/files/Campagne%20de%20signatures%20CATHII%20nov21.pdf?utm\_source=Cyberimpact&utm\_medium=email&utm\_campaign=Diocese-de-Gaspe--Infolettre-26-novembre-2021

On the international front, Aid to the Church in Need announced on November 24 a new report on the abduction, forced conversion and sexual victimization of Christian women and girls. There have also been instances of violence against women within the Church. There is a never-ending rotation of tasks to be done around a Church, some are routine and others are once-and-done, some require but a little time, while others are long-term ministries.

Volunteers are always welcome.

Experience the joy of serving your parish – it gives more to you than you give to it!
