The Nicene Creed Explained will continue next week

See our website, www.corpuschristiparish.ca/nicene Creed for an introduction to the Nicene Creed and explanations of earlier sections.

We continue to examine the Papal Bull “Spes Non Confundit”

A Papal (or Pontifical) “Bull of Indiction” is an official document, usually written in Latin, published by the Pope to proclaim a Jubilee Year. The Papal Bull for this Jubilee Year of Hope, translated into English, can be found here:

www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/bulls/documents/20240509

It is worthwhile reading this document to reflect on the Holy Father’s theme of hope for this year.

Each week, we select a few sentences from each paragraph in the Bull as inspirational reflections to help us live this Jubilee Year of Hope.

Some excerpts from Paragraph 22:

- Another reality having to do with eternal life is God’s judgement, both at the end of our individual lives and at the end of history.
- We should indeed prepare ourselves consciously and soberly for the moment when our lives will be judged, but we must always do this from the standpoint of hope.
- In the words of Benedict XVI: “At the moment of judgement we experience and we absorb the overwhelming power of his love over all the evil in the world and in ourselves. The pain of love becomes our salvation and our joy”.
- [Judgement] is meant to bring us to a definitive encounter with the Lord. The evil we have done cannot remain hidden; it needs to be purified in order to enable this definitive encounter with God’s love.
- Here we begin to see the need of our prayers for all those who have ended their earthly pilgrimage... The Jubilee indulgence, thanks to the power of prayer, is intended in a particular way for those who have gone before us, so that they may obtain full mercy.

See our website for more information about the Jubilee Year & Papal Bull:

Questions to Ponder (from <https://pastoral.center/>)

- ▶ When have you done more than was required of you in the service of others?
- ▶ What gifts has God given you, and how are you using them?
- ▶ How does fear sometimes stop you from doing what God calls you to do?
