When have you let someone down who trusted you? How did you feel?

When have you felt that you betrayed the confidence of another, as Peter did when he denied Jesus?

April 13 – Saint Martin I, Pope, the last martyred pope.

and prepare to share in the resurrection at Easter.

PALM SUNDAY

At Mass on Palm Sunday, we re-enact with our procession with palms, the welcome of Jesus in his triumphant entry into Jerusalem, as a public display of homage and loyalty to Christ our King and Redeemer.

Since Palm branches aren't readily available in some areas, there are other plants like olive branches, box, yew, spruce, willows and pussy-willows that may be blessed and used the same way for Passion Sunday.

Palm Sunday is also known as "Fig Sunday" due to the tradition that Christ ate figs after his entry into Jerusalem. As related in Saint Matthew's Gospel shortly after the account of the triumphant entry into Jerusalem, with the withering of the barren fig tree.

Blessed Palms in Your Home – Reverence for Sacramentals

Christ is the King of our home, so we bring blessed palms are kept in the home as a witness to faith in Jesus Christ, the messianic king, and in his Paschal Victory." Because the palms are blessed, they are now sacramentals, which "are sacred signs instituted by the Church. They prepare [us] to receive the fruit of the sacraments and sanctify different circumstances of life." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1667)

Sacramentals should be treated with respect and not simply be thrown away – your palms should only be burned or buried after display, so you may return them to church to be burnt for Ash Wednesday next year.
